

ACF Industries Promotes Officers

John F. Burditt

Henry A. Correa

ACF Industries, Inc., has elected John F. Burditt and Henry A. Correa vice presidents, executive department, it was announced yesterday by William T. Taylor, chairman of the railroad-car and auto-equipment manufacturer.

Mr. Burditt is treasurer and Mr. Correa is vice president for marketing. When the move becomes effective Nov. 1, the executive department will consist of the two officers and Russell C. Taylor, president.

Mr. Burditt will be responsible for financial and real estate operations, acquisitions, advertising, public relations and foreign licensing. Mr. Correa will handle relations between two company divisions.

The New York Times

Published: October 24, 1963
Copyright © The New York Times