

Robert F. Schreiber Marries Miss Marion Alvarez Correa

Special to The New York Times.

HYANNIS PORT, Mass., Aug. 18 — St. Andrew's-by-the-Sea Protestant Episcopal Church was the setting here today for the marriage of Miss Marion Howes Alvarez Correa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgardo Alvarez Correa of Middletown, Ohio, and South Yarmouth, to Robert Frederic Schreiber. He is the son of Mrs. W. Frederic Schreiber of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and the late Dr. Schreiber.

The Rev. Arthur Richardson performed the ceremony. A reception was held at the Alvarez Correa home in South Yarmouth.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a short-sleeved gown of white silk barathea and a bouffant tulle veil attached to a bow of matching barathea. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses and stephanotis.

Miss Amanda Pope was maid of honor. The other attendants were Mrs. Antony Alvarez Correa, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Daniel E. Pugh and Miss Doris Schreiber, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Lee Hollowell, Mrs. Michael Maxtone-Graham, Mrs. Peter Thorson, Mrs. Richard Bodman and the Misses Cary Wiedemayer and Helen Scott Townsend. Fifield Workim Jr. served as best man.

The bride, an alumna of the Ethel Walker School in Simsbury, Conn., attended the University of Cincinnati and the New England Conservatory of Music. Her father is vice president and secretary of the Armco Steel Corporation.

Mr. Schreiber was graduated from the Millbrook School and cum laude from Harvard, where he was a member of Hasty Pudding-Institute of 1770 and the A. D. Club.

The couple will live in New York, where the bride is with the pathology department of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center and the bridegroom is a student at the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons.
