

Elizabeth Winchester Huntington

Friends of Betty's will be saddened to learn that she died November 23rd, 2002 in Pauma Valley, California.

She and her late first husband, Henry Correa, were longtime residents of John's Island, Florida, New York City and Black Point, Conn.

In New York City, she belonged to the Colony Club and served with distinction on the board of many charities, including her favorite, Sheltering Arms and Children's Services.

During World War II, she served as a "WAVE" in the U. S. Navy, becoming a lieutenant.

Letters of condolence should be addressed to her surviving husband, Charles Huntington, care of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huntington, 1701 N. Fox Hill Road, Flagstaff, Arizona 86004.

In her memory, contributions may be given to the Sheltering Arms and Children's Services, 122 East 29th Street, New York, NY 17016.
